SERMON INTRODUCTION

For over a decade, Tiger Woods was the dominant force in pro golf, spending a record 683 weeks as World Number One. He has been awarded "PGA Player of the Year" a record eleven times and has the record of leading the money list in ten different seasons. But after personal issues, a rash of injuries, and poor performances, Woods experienced a significant drop in his ranking. In July of last year, he dropped to a ranking of 1,005, the first time he's ever been out of the top 1,000 in his career.

His difficulties in recent years has Woods thinking about life after golf. In December of 2015, The Week magazine reported that Woods was struggling to find his identity after his third back surgery. Woods told reporters, "There is really nothing I can look forward to; . . . I am really good at playing video games. That's basically how I pass a lot of my time."

At the age of 43, Tiger is now preparing to make a comeback in a sport he used to dominate. He may still be able to recapture the success he enjoyed earlier in his career. However, his experience reminds us of the stark impermanence of the many goals to which we devote our lives. God has a more lasting goal for our lives. That's why what God wants most is for us to desire and devote ourselves to His vision of life.

Join us this Sabbath as we conclude the final message of the series, The Two, where Jesus finishes describing what God wants most.

Offering today: local church budget. Next week: local church budget. All loose and undesignated offerings are applied to church budget. You may give online by visiting www.lluc.org.

The center floral arrangement is lovingly presented by the van den Hoven family in memory of Henk, our dear husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.

We regret to announce the death of Mary Jane Arellano on January 10. She is survived by her husband Bialquain, daughters Dena, Von, and Kim, four grandchildren, and her brother Brian. Her service was held January 14.

We regret to announce the death of Peter Laudenslager on December 29. He is survived by his mother Evelyn, and his brother Eric. His service will be held at Montecito Chapel on January 27 at 3 p.m. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the ReLive Thrift Store.

Women of all ages: Tomorrow, January 21, DeeAnn Bragaw, a women's ministry trainer for NAD, will give an introduction to the latest Women's Ministry ideas and resources available from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. in The Prayer Place, room 102. Please RSVP to attend a light breakfast and presentation to anita.roberts@seccsda.org or groddy@llu.edu.

The Growing Disciples Together team invites you to help LLUC better understand its culture by participating in a brief assessment survey (beginning February 3), based on Fuller Youth Institute's Growing Young research. This survey will help the team and the church family as we strive together to grow disciples. The survey will take approximately 5-10 minutes to complete, and your responses will remain confidential as the results are being incorporated into a larger report. The honest feedback of members from every generation is essential as we plot our way forward.

55+ Seniors Fellowship Luncheon will be held on January 27 at 1:15 p.m., in Fellowship Hall: Bring a dish and join other seniors for fellowship and good food.

Quilting Ministry welcomes you to Fellowship Hall West on January 21 and 22, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., including a lunch. Learn how you can help with cutting, stitching, designing, ironing, or tying. Every volunteer can be a part of impacting others in a unique manner. This was reflected by one deeply touched NICU recipient family, who donated 500 yards of fabric to enable this ministry to continue to bless others as they had been blessed. Financial donations enable bulk purchases of batting.

If you have not established an estate plan (a will or a trust), a judge may ultimately determine who gets your property according to California law. Be proactive by establishing your own plan. For more information, contact Betsy Matthews at the church office.

Read through the Bible 2018: Join a group that meets every Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday to read and pray together from 7 to 7:30 a.m. in The Prayer Place (room 102). For information, call Randy Tan at (909)553-7642.

Men's Choruses Concert: Five California-based men's choruses (Bay Area Men's Chorus, Christian Edition, Heralds of Hope, His Voice, and The William Chunestudy Men's Chorus) will perform for Sabbath Vespers on February 10 at 5:00 p.m. at the Loma Linda University Church. This special event will feature 120 voices praising God in music.

Open Prayer Circle in room 104 on Wednesday's from 6 to 7 p.m. is inviting people willing to share their testimony of how God has changed their lives. Speakers will have 15 minutes or less. For information, please call (909)362-3659 or email ymscsprin@gmail.com.

Loma Linda University Health will be hosting the 7th International Congress on Vegetarian Nutrition beginning February 26. The conference is held every five years and draws more than 700 scientists, physicians, and nutritionists from around the world to Loma Linda. The event will feature an enlarged culinary demonstration by chefs who specialize in healthy, delicious vegetarian cuisine. To register, go to VegetarianCongress.org.

Equipped to Serve Seminar: All local church ministry leaders in Southeastern California Conference are invited to attend a set of seminars to get new ideas and to be inspired for activities in your local church. This event will be held on January 20 from 3-7 p.m. at the Mt. Rubidoux church and on January 27 3-7 p.m. at San Diego Academy. Attendees will enjoy a light supper at the close of the experience. For information and to register, go to facebook.com/seccadventist.
