Sermon Introduction

A weekly Sabbath—while an idea as old as time—is also an idea whose time has come. In fact, it's difficult to imagine an idea more germane and more desperately needed in our day than the Sabbath.

Simply put, the Hebrew word that in English is translated as Sabbath means stop! As Eugene Peterson says so well, the first reality about Sabbath, then, is that in order to practice it, we have to stop. Stopping is the very thing we moderns find difficult. The truth is, I find it hard to stop even at a red sign that says, STOP. I would rather do a rolling "California stop" than actually bring my vehicle to a full halt! I'm in too much of a hurry.

Richard Swenson, author of books such as The Overload Syndrome: Learning to Live Within Your Limits and Margin: Restoring Emotional, Physical, Financial and Time Reserves to Overloaded Lives, said the following in a seminar that I was privileged to attend:

Thirty-six percent of Americans say they are rushed all the time. This is historically unprecedented, anywhere, anytime. The average desk worker has 36 hours of work sitting on their desk at any given time. The average American gets 2½ hours less sleep than they did 100 years ago.

He then went on to list these common symptoms of overloaded lives:

Apathy, depression, work dread, irritability, anger, hostility, frustration, disorganization, mistakes, chaos, fatigue, exhaustion, burnout, moral failure, relational problems, risk taking, self-medication, abnormal sleeping/eating patterns, GI & CV symptoms, headaches.

Sound familiar? Anybody need a Sabbath? Sabbath is an idea whose time has come. Join me today as we thoughtfully (and gratefully) consider the fourth commandment: "Remember the Sabbath day. . . ."

Randy Roberts, Senior Pastor

Together in Prayer

If you have ever wondered why, how, or when to intercede in prayer for the church, this is for you. Jesus invites us to do so. The Prayer Place is the place. Join us Sabbath mornings from 9:00 a.m. to 10:15 a.m., from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., or from 11:45 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. We are located by the Court Yard in room 102.

Church Life

Offering today: LLUC Media. Next week: local church budget. All loose and undesignated offerings are applied to church budget. You may give online by visiting www.lluc.org.

The platform floral arrangements are provided by the LLU School of Medicine Student Association and dean's office in honor of the February 16 dedication of the freshman class.

The flowers in the lobby are to welcome Janka Noskova, medical director of the conference in Slovakia. From John Scharffenberg.

Church Office Holiday Hours: offices will be closed Monday, February 19.

Gala Concert celebrating the 40th anniversary of the dedication of the Casavant organ will be February 24 at 4:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. The celebration concert will feature past and present organists who have contributed to worship at the University Church. It will conclude with a performance of "Symphonie Concertante," Joseph Jongen's monumental composition performed by Kimo Smith, with Ariel Quintana conducting the LLUC Sanctuary Orchestra.

University Church Campers will camp at Guajome Regional Park (Oceanside) March 9 to 11. Bring your tent or camper, or just come for a day in nature. Call Joan Summers at (909)796-6075 before March 5 for reservations.

Community Life

Prayer Walk hosted by LLU School of Religion, will provide an opportunity to reflect on LLU history and pray for the future of our campus, our students, and the lives of those we serve every day. Meet on the Centennial Pathway at the Mission Globe statue on March 3 at 7:30 a.m. The nearest parking is located in Lot X. Call (909)558-7478 for more info.

LLU Medical Auxiliary invites you to its APC luncheon on March 4, at 11:00 a.m. Guest speaker is Sheila Walsh, best-selling author, singer, songwriter, TV co-host and evangelist. It will be at ESRI Fusion Restaurant, 380 New York Ave, Redlands. For information go to <http://llumedaux.org/apc-2018/>.

Loma Linda Academy Family Volunteer Night convenes Saturday evening, February 24, with vespers at 6:00 p.m., followed by community service projects such as filling hygiene packs, tying fleece blankets, creating toys, packing soup mix, bracelets for military, and donating hair to Locks of Love. Fun foods will be available for purchase. For information, go to lla.org/fvn18 or call (909)796-0161.

"The Masterpiece Cakeshop Case: Equality, Dignity, and Religious Liberty": Constitutional law experts USC law professor David Cruz and Adventist religious liberty attorney Alan Reinach will discuss the pending Supreme Court case. This discussion is sponsored by LLU Humanities Program and will be in the Damazo Amphitheater at 3 p.m. on February 24.

Plant Your Future: Learn about the correlation of diabetes and nutrition; discover easy, practical ways to apply plant-based practices; and experience cooking demonstrations and food vendors. The event will be held on February 25 from 1 to 4 p.m. at Loma Linda University Health, San Bernardino campus. Health talks will be offered in both English and Spanish.

"Finding and Connecting with a Community of Faith," a Wil Alexander Wholeness Series presentation by Chris Stanley, a pastor at the Redlands Church, will be held on Wednesday, February 28 at 5 p.m., at Centennial Complex, Damazo Amphitheater. For information, call (909)558-1000, ext. 83378.

Baptism

Albert Perez is a master mechanic for Caterpillar Corp. He has studied the It Is Written Bible study course with Wendy Hamilton and Paul Damazo and is looking forward to being part of LLUC and sharing God's love.
