Sermon Introduction

American poet Maya Angelou wrote:

"When we come to it
We must confess that we are the possible
We are the miraculous, the true wonders of this world
That is when, and only when we come to it"

What is this force with the power to shift paradigms, which inspires us to ply prose into poetry, shape stones into sculpture, craft canvass into context, and tumult into tune.

This morning we turn our attention to this question, hoping to be gently led by the One who is before all things, and in him all things hold together. Lord, let us love each other without angst or agendas, without problems or pride; let us love one another the way you have loved us.

May God grant you grace.

Miguel Mendez
Pastor for Spiritual Development
