SERMON INTRODUCTION

In our current sermon series, our focus is on the Old Testament book of Psalms. More Than Words is the title. A number of us, as colleagues, are joining together over the next several weeks to delve into the realities of these words, intended to be set to music, and what they mean to us today.

The psalms contained in the biblical book bearing that title give expression to the deepest desires, pains, hopes, fears, joys, and sorrows of the human heart. I have often told people who are struggling with loss, defeat, fear, or any number of other trying human experiences to go to the book of Psalms, for in the Psalms they will find a way to express to God these intimate and deep emotions. On the other hand, in the Psalms, we also find a way to express the most lofty praise of the soul to God!

Now a word about today's psalm(s). (We look at two psalms which, in some of the ancient manuscripts were one.) So many songs are about longing. Longing to be with someone we love. Longing for a day and a time long since passed. Longing for a distant homeland. Longing for a better time. Turn on any radio station, click on many iTunes songs, and the theme of longing will soon croon out of the speakers. We human beings long for many things.

I believe, though we may not always recognize it as such, that one of our principal longings is our longing for God. Underneath all the other longings is a pervasive desire for God. Such is expressed in the song(s) we consider today. See if these words do not give voice to the deepest longings of your heart . . .

Randy Roberts, senior pastor

TOGETHER IN PRAYER

If you have ever wondered why, how, or when to intercede in prayer for the church, this is for you. Jesus invites us to do so. The Prayer Place is the place. Join us Sabbath mornings from 9:00 a.m. to 10:15 a.m., from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., or from 11:45 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. We are located by the Court Yard in room 102.

FLAMENCO GUITAR STYLIST,
COMPOSER & TEACHER

CHILD DEDICATION

Aviendha Rose Grace was born June 24, 2016. Her parents are Jennifer and Matthew Grace. Matthew works at LLUMC, and Jennifer is in the MFA graduate program at Cal State LA.

BAPTISM

Rachel Charles is age 11. Rachel and her parents, Christopher and Ruth Charles, are members of the El Paso Central SDA Church in Texas. Through the online ministry of the Loma Linda University Church, Rachel has appreciated and desired for Pastor Randy to baptize her as he did for Rachel's two older sisters, Hannah and Leah. She loves to sing, enjoys playing her harp, and being part of the bell choir. Rachel loves Jesus and wants to dedicate her musical talents and gifts for His service.

CHURCH LIFE

Offering today: local church budget. Next week: LLA subsidy. All loose and undesignated offerings are applied to church budget. You may give online by visiting www.lluc.org.

The flowers in the lobby are in loving memory of my "babe," Dieta Cao from Jeff. A memorial service will be tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the LLUC Sanctuary.

A special thank you to all our volunteers who helped with VBS this past week! We can't thank you enough for the wonderful work and dedication of time you gave to Children's Ministry! With appreciation, Pastor Shawna and the VBS Leadership Team.

Church Budget is an essential part of the local church operations here at LLUC. Without it things like utilities, maintenance, publications, and other support and administrative amenities that we've all come to expect from this church simply could not function. Currently, our Church Budget is $251,425 below our goal for this fiscal year ending June 30, 2017. LLUC does not take lightly the support given by each member and leadership wants to express how truly blessed the church is by the giving spirit of each individual both near and far. We ask that you pray and consider a contribution to Church Budget that will help us reach our goal for this year. Your sacrifice makes possible the mission of "Growing Disciples in Christ."

Grocery Bag Donations: Re:Live Thrift Store is looking for plastic grocery bag donations. Please drop them in the Thrift Store collection bin located in the LLU Church parking lot, or you can take them to the Thrift Store. Thank you for your donations.

Join the LLUC Quilters June 25 and 26 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall and become involved in a hands-on ministry that touches hearts. Dozens of baby quilts that are made monthly are given with love to babies at the Neonatal Intensive Care on campus and to the SACH clinic. If you cannot attend, remember this ministry with financial support for backing materials that are purchased in bulk at discount.

Literature Ministry/Bible Study Team needs YOU! We continue to expand as we place literature racks in new locations and need volunteers to keep them stocked. To assist, please call (909)796-9997. In addition, our literature racks contain cards for people to request "It Is Written" Bible Studies. If you would like to receive training to give these Bible studies, call (805)338-8910 for more information.

UReach Opportunity: A part-time kitchen assistant is needed for the Meals on Wheels outreach program. Please e-mail stevenielsen@ureachlluc.com.

COMMUNITY LIFE

Caring families are invited to host high school students for two weeks in July during the Summer Gateway to the Health Professions program, sponsored by LLU Community-Academic Partners in Service (CAPS). The program is designed to allow selected students to explore a range of health care professions. Host families are compensated. For details, contact Oscar Bustillos at OBustillos@llu.edu or (909)651-5011.

Celebrate National Men's Health Month with the Living Whole Wellness Program at Loma Linda University Health. Take action to be healthy and safe and encourage men and boys in your life to make their health a priority. Learn from the featured speaker, Herbert Ruckle, MD, steps men can take each day to improve health, FACS through the free educational live stream at myllu.llu.edu/livingwhole/wellnesslive on June 28, 5:30 to 6:00 p.m. For more information, call (909)651-4007.

The 50th anniversary of the LLU Medical Center move to the then-new, medical-center towers will be commemorated on August 27 in the church sanctuary. This celebration will include many stories and photos about the move--possibly yours. Do you remember where you were or what you were doing during the move from the Sanitarium on the hill to the current cloverleaf towers? Did you help transport patients, move equipment, clean out closets, or manage medications? Perhaps you took photos of the historic event. Please share your memories and photos. Call the story hotline at (909)558-4111 or e-mail events@llu.edu.

Young Adults Needed! Do you enjoy working on projects? The SECC is looking for you to join a volunteer team to review grant proposals. Contact Eric Penick at (951)509-2260 or Joanna Theolene at Joanna.theolene@gmail.com for more information.
