SERMON INTRODUCTION

Consider a number of sayings about friends and friendship, and then I have a question for you—a question related to our Song of Songs text today.

Friendship is one mind in two bodies.
– Mencius

My father always used to say that when you die,
if you've got five real friends, then you've had a great life. – Lee Iacocca

I'll lean on you and you lean on me and we'll be okay.
– Dave Matthews

Once I told my old man, "Nobody likes me." He said, "Don't say that—everybody hasn't met you yet."
– Comedian Rodney Dangerfield

If all my friends were to jump off a bridge, I wouldn't jump with them; I'd be at the bottom to catch them.
– Unknown

Don't walk in front of me,
I may not follow.
Don't walk behind me,
I may not lead...
Walk beside me and be my friend.
– Albert Camus

Everyone hears what you say.
Friends listen to what you say.
Best friends listen to what you don't say.
– Unknown

Now the question: if you have a boyfriend, a girlfriend, a fiancé, a husband or a wife, could you speak of that person in such terms? In other words, besides sharing a romantic relationship, are you friends? Today, we turn our thoughts to such matters.

Randy Roberts, Senior pastor
