SERMON INTRODUCTION

How recently have you needed a way out—a way out of something? It could have been anything. You were speeding, and now the officer is sitting in his cruiser with your driver's license and insurance paperwork. "Is he going to write me a ticket?" you wonder. "I sure wish there was a way out of this!"

Or you're sitting in class, taking a surprise quiz. Last night you spent a little too much time at the gym, playing basketball. You should have been studying. You knew it then, and you're sure of it now! "I wish there was a way out of this surprise quiz. I wonder if the teacher will throw out our worst score?"

stuff?! How am I ever going to pay this bill? I wish there was a way out of the mounting debt I'm facing."

Or what of a spiritual quandary? "God, I am in deep spiritual weeds. I don't know where to turn. I don't know what to do. I don't know how to escape the problems I'm facing. Is there a way out?"

What does Christmas have to say about such things? What does God offer, what does God do, for people who need a way out? Join me today as we turn to the Old Testament prophet Isaiah and continue our Christmas sermon series, 'Tis Not Yet the Season.

Or you sit looking at this month's credit card bill. You're stunned! "Who bought all of this

CHURCH LIFE

Hospitality Dinner: There will be no Hospitality Dinner today.

Offering today: local church budget. Next week: LLUC building fund. All loose and undesignated offerings are applied to church budget. You may give online by visiting www.lluc.org.

The center floral arrangement is given in loving memory of Sean Pastrama, who for the last nine years has been held in God's care and keeping until we are reunited for eternity. There are 23 red roses, one for every year of his life, and one white rose for every year our hope rests in the reassurance of the resurrection. With an everlasting hope, your sister Julie "Big."

We regret to announce the death of Helmuth Fischer on November 18. He is survived by his wife Muriel, sons, David, Dan, Jon, Jay, and Ben, 11 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren. Services are pending.

A Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA can be a convenient way to support LLUC. Now that Congress has made the QCD permanent, call Betsy Matthews at the church office to learn if you are eligible and for more information (909)558-4570.

Season's Greetings are expressed each year by members of the University Church through a contribution of $25 or more to our music program. Your names will be listed in the bulletin on December 24. Please designate your contribution "Greetings" and your name exactly as you would like it to appear on the list. Deadline for contribution is today.

WE BUILD: You are invited to join the "WE BUILD" program – a daring faith and fundraising campaign for the new LLUC ministry building. Interested donors can sign up for recurring giving via the church website at lluc.org, and click on the give button.

COMMUNITY LIFE

Wesley Kime, an artist, physician, and graduate of the LLU School of Medicine, will open a retrospective exhibit, "A Life of Art," which includes portraits of LLU faculty and local landscapes. The show runs through December 15 at the Brandstater Gallery of La Sierra University Visual Art Center, Monday-Wednesday, 10 a.m-5 p.m., and Thursday, 12-7 p.m. For information about the artist's reception, call (951)785-2170.

The "Special Offering" for our new Ministry Building is scheduled for December 17. Please prayerfully consider a special contribution for the building program on that day. Our goal for November and December is $1.2 million. Please remember this: With our offering, we build for His kingdom!

WINTER WEDNESDAYS registration is open. This year's Winter Wednesdays, January 11-February 1, will feature eight seminar options to select from. This annual event will provide four informative and enjoyable evenings beginning at 5:30 p.m. with Najwa's Catering providing a soup and salad meal for all seminar attendees who have pre-registered with $20.00 by January 5. Register at the church office by cash, check, or credit card; by phone at (909)558-4570 with a credit card; or at lluc.org.

Christmas Candlelight Concert tickets may be purchased on line at lluc.org or call (800)965-9324. Tickets will be sold today in room 101 starting at 5 p.m. for the 6:30 service only.

Quilters will not meet in December. Support the Quilters Ministry by bringing cloth, thread, yarn, or backing to the church office. The quilts are donated to the SACHS clinic and to LLUMC for babies in need.

Thank you to all our volunteers who made the Thanksgiving Basket project possible. Special thanks to Perk Farley for donating a trailer to store our collected food items, Fay Saddi for baking 520 pumpkin pies, Janette Lewis for donating untold hours of her time to make sure that the project ran smoothly. We collected over 5000 food items and delivered 506 baskets.

A message from Pastor Filip: "My wife Elena and I want to thank this church for its recognition and support for my ministry at my ordination. I love this church, our youth, and my colleagues, and I look forward to continuing to serve you for many years."

Christmas with Steve Green and Dick Tunney: This concert will be presented December 16 at 6 p.m. and December 17 at 4 p.m. at Calimesa SDA Church. All seats are reserved and must be purchased in advance via tickets.com or calling (800)965-9324. For information, call (909)795-4960.
