SERMON INTRODUCTION

We welcome you to Loma Linda University Church and the Loma Linda University baccalaureate services. What an incredible weekend this is! Graduation represents the culmination of the pursuit of a dream, a lot of hard work, overcoming challenges and all the possibilities for the future.

Congratulations to the graduates of the Schools of Allied Health Professionals, Behavioral Health, Nursing, Public Health and Religion! May this unique time with family, friends and fellow classmates be an experience you will remember fondly for all eternity.

If you look closely at this years baccalaureate services you will notice that instead of one single speaker there are several. Each will be sharing how their lives have been changed because of their experience here. These are only a few of many inspiring stories that so many of you could share. I pray that the incredible testimonies shared during the services will be an encouragement to each graduate and to all that are attending this weekend.

Finally graduates, may God richly bless you and your families as you transition to a new chapter of life and begin to apply your knowledge toward serving others.

Randy Roberts, Senior Pastor
